

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!

(Sung to "Rudolph the Red Nose Reindeer")

You know Office Techs, Nerd Dudes and then there is Bust Buy,
The guys that sells microwaves, and Computer Bob he does try,
But do you recall?
....The most famous Network Consultants of all?

Excalibur Technology,
Has the best team you'll know,
And if you ever called them,
You would say I.T. is all they know.
All of the other support companies;
Are so bad they laugh and call end-users names;
They never try to be the best like Excalibur,
Unless you just want play video games.

Then one major server upgrade,
The office staff came to say:
"Excalibur with your techs so bright,
Won't you get this project done right?"

Then how the staff all loved their network,
As they shouted out with glee,
"Excalibur Technology,
You're the best consultants in computer history!"
